

Name:

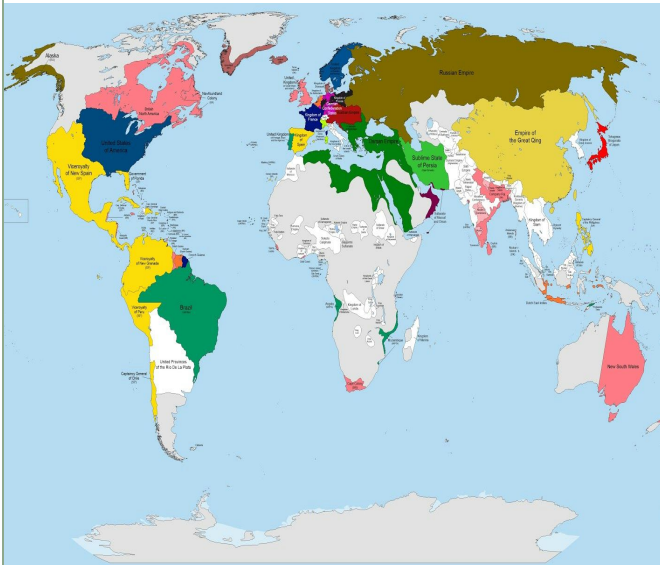

The Monroe Doctrine and

Date:

You Guided Notes

Heading:

Notes:

Getting to Know Our World: 1815-1823

1. Draw a line on the map between the Western and Eastern Hemisphere.
2. Where is the Western Hemisphere?
3. What CONTINENTS are included in it?
4. Circle the United States

Getting to Know the Players:

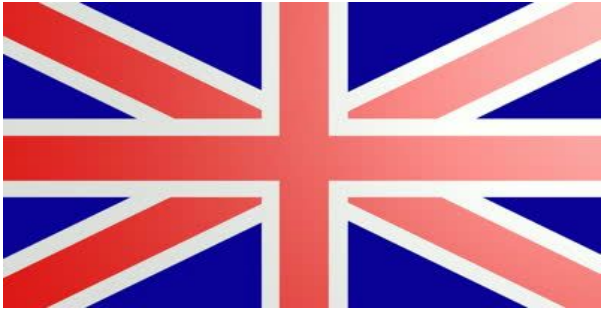

1. Label what countries each of the people in this cartoon might represent
2. Why do you think they are depicted this way?
3. Describe what is going on in this picture. What does this tell you about the U.S.?

4. Who is this person and what office did he hold?

5. Look at each flag below. What countries flag is it and what did each of them have to do with this person?

1st Flag:

2nd Flag:

6. What was the reason that this person and each country worked together?

7. How did all of this lead up to the Monroe Doctrine?

8. Where would you be today without the Monroe Doctrine? Is that better or worse than where we are now?

